

Notice to All Employees

You are protected under provisions of the Rhode Island Employment Security Act and the Temporary Disability Insurance Act

Unemployment Insurance Benefits

If you become totally or partially unemployed:

1. File your claim for benefits within 7 days of your layoff date. File by telephone from 8 AM to 3 PM Monday through Thursday, 9 AM to 3 PM Friday (interpreters are available for Spanish, Portuguese, Cambodian, Laotian, and Hmong).

For quicker service, file an Internet claim 24 hours a day/7 days a week.

Visit: www.dlt.ri.gov/ui

To file a claim by phone, call: (401) 243-9100.

Monday is usually a high volume day for telephone claims; you may prefer to file your claim later in the week or via the Internet (see below).

2. Have your correct Social Security number and the name, address, and telephone number of your employers for the last two years available when you call. If you are not a U. S. citizen, have your alien registration number ready.

3. To collect unemployment benefits the law requires that:

- a. You must be unemployed through no fault of your own,
- b. You must have earned minimum qualifying wages while you were working,
- c. You must be physically able to work, available for work and actively seeking work, and
- d. You must register for work with the Department of Labor and Training.

Employment and Training Services

If you need help in finding a job, the Department of Labor and Training offers free employment and training related services including:

- 1. Job referral and placement services.
- 2. Resource rooms with a wide range of employment and training resources.
- 3. Career counseling and testing to help assess aptitudes and interests.
- 4. Internet access for employment and training information.
- 5. Job Search Workshops to help you develop interviewing skills.
- 6. Resume writing seminars to help you create an effective resume and cover letter.
